

PSYCHOLOGY FOR WRITERS WORKSHOP

Want to use psychology theories to create well developed characters and increase conflict in your fiction?

Award winning author and NZAC counsellor Darian Smith is running a workshop for writers sharing knowledge from over a decade of training and experience as a counsellor, adapted for use by writers.

- You'll learn techniques to develop and understand your characters' motivations, personality, and behaviour.
- Build realistic character history that impacts on the present action.
- Increase conflict in your story using psychological understanding.*
- Time will be spent developing your own characters
- *You will receive a copy of The Psychology Workbook for Writers.*
